Oct. 23	Bangkok (Floating Market): This morning's tour takes you to the world renowned Floating Market where for over a hundred years, villagers transport their agricultural products by canals to the center of trading at Damnoen Saduak. This incredible network is a labyrinth of almost two hundreds branched canals lined with ancient Thai wooden houses and colorfully decorated by small wooden boats that contain fresh fruits and vegetables. Afterwards, visit the interesting Train Market where local vendors and patrons line the train tracks, quickly disperse and reassemble as the train comes and goes. Return to Bangkok in the afternoon and enjoy the balance of the day at leisure. (B)
Oct. 24	Bangkok / Siem Reap: Transfer to the airport for your morning flight to Siem Reap. Upon arrival, commence sightseeing of Angkor visiting ANGKOR THOM, covering an area of 10 square km enclosed by a wall and wide moats, the city includes many of Angkor's most popular sights; followed by TA PROHM: one of the most popular attractions of Angkor as much of the jungle has not been cleared and it looks very much as most of the Angkor monuments would have appeared when European explorers first stumbled across them. Later this afternoon, enjoy sunset over the Angkorian Countryside at a nearby temple. Accommodations at Victoria Angkor Resort & Spa. (B)

Oct. 25	Siem Reap: Your early morning starts with a visit of the magnificent Angkor Wat. ANGKOR WAT was dedicated to the Hindu god Vishnu by King Suryavarman II, who reigned between 1131 and 1150. It was constructed over a period of 30 years and illustrates some of the most beautiful examples of Khmer and Hindu art. Afterwards, proceed by road to Tonle Sap Lake at Kampong Kleang where we embark on an inspiring boat trip to observe the primitive way of life of the Great Lake's floating fishing communities. Return to Siem Reap in the afternoon. (B)
Oct. 26	Siem Reap: Enjoy sightseeing of additional Angkor Temples that include: BANTEAY SREI. seemingly miniature in comparison to the other Angkor temples, Banteay Srei is considered to be the jewel of classical Khmer art. Built in pink sandstone, the walls are covered in exquisitely preserved carvings of unusual delicacy; BANTEAY SAMRE is a mid-12th century temple dedicated to the god Vishnu; NEAK PEAN, built by King Jayavarman VII (ruled 1181 to 1201), it is a Buddhist temple consisting of a square pool with four smaller square pools arranged on each axis; PRE RUP consisting a pyramid shaped temple with the upper-most of the three tiers carrying five square shrines arranged as a quincunx. The name means turning the body and refers to the traditional method of cremation; and the temples of TA SOM and EAST MEBON. (B)
