TOUR ITINERARY

Day	Activity Summary
Feb. 08	Arrive Singapore: Upon morning arrival in Singapore, be met and transferred to THE INTERCONTINENTAL SINGAPORE HOTEL for your next 3 nights' accommodations. Balance of the day at leisure. Note: Early check-in is subject to availability at time of arrival. Meals: N/A Accommodations: The InterContinental Singapore (Deluxe Room)
Feb. 09	Singapore: Morning and afternoon free at leisure to eat, shop and explore Singapore on your own. Later this afternoon, enjoy a unique Singapore-by-Night Experience including visits to some of the city's favorite foodies spots. Your visit begins with Gardens by the Bay that spans over 100 hectares with a price-tag over one billion dollars. The gardens house two domes - Cloud Forest and Flower Dome, which are climate-controlled indoor glasshouses. The Flower Dome (the larger of the two) replicates the cool-dry climate of the Mediterranean and South Africa, whilst the Cloud Forest replicates a cool-moist climate found in Tropical Montane regions such as Mount Kinabalu in Sabah and high elevation areas in South America. Within the gardens are also 18 impressive-looking Supertrees (tree-like structures), which are vertical gardens up to 50 metres tall and perform a multitude of functions. Moving on to the newest attraction in Singapore at Next visit the iconic Marina Bay Sands SkyPark.

	Crowning the three hotel towers of Marina Bay Sands at 200 metres in the sky, the Sands SkyPark is home to the world's largest public cantilever housing a public observatory deck, lush gardens. With a 150-metre infinity-edged swimming pool. Next, head over to Newton Food center located next to the Central Business District with charming Victorian wrought-iron structure, that is usually dismissed this way by Singaporeans. Newton is the actual location for the street food fest in the film that's had critics salivating. With close to 100 stalls, it's no wonder this food centre got chosen to be featured in Crazy Rich Asians. Amongst some of Singaporean's favorites are: Hup Kee Fried Oyster Omelette, Kwee Heng Duck Noodle, Kwang Kee Teochew Fish Porridge, Bee Heng Popiah, Soon Wah Fishball Kway Teow Mee (for fishball noodles) and Chong Pang Huat, for barbecued chicken wings. Later, take a stroll around the vicinity of Chijmes, a colonial-era compound which has been restored in 1996 for commercial purposes as a dining, shopping and entertainment centre with ethnic restaurants, shops and a function hall, providing a backdrop for musicals, recitals, theatrical performances and weddings. Feb. 15	Phuket: Today, enjoy a half day foodie-themed tour of Phuket Town. Here, you will enjoy the beautiful Sino Portuguese architecture, boutique shops and even gets a chance to explore the busy morning market, while getting a taste of local fruit. Visit Baan Chinpracha, a fine example of a Sino-Colonial mansion. Along the route there is the chance to try local Thai snacks and drinks. Walk along soi Romanee, the street that connects Thalang Road with Dibuk Road, evokes Phuket's interesting history. Like many streets in Phuket's old quarter, there are lots of colorful Sino-Portuguese style shop-houses. On charming central Talang Road try roti, a typical southern food and watch the making of "Cha Chuk", Thai iced milk tea –"pulled" in a fascinating process. Next, visit Thai Mua Museum, one of the finest looking and well-maintained historical buildings in Phuket. These days it is used as an exhibition space and has a lovely garden that exhibits large and heavy tools and machines from Phuket's tin-mining years. Enjoy roadside fresh coconuts for some refreshments. Finish this active morning with a nice Southern style lunch at one of the boutique "Sino Portuguese style" restaurant in Phuket old town. Return to your resort and enjoy the balance of the afternoon at leisure.
